Your Prescription for Safe Flying with Dr. William Scott Jr. D.O. FAAFP

Dr. William Scott Jr. D.O. FAAFP will address the Medical Challenges today's pilot needs to know about. As a Navy aviator he soled a T-34Mentor in 1967. Then, carrier based he flew F4 Phantoms during the Vietnam crisis. In addition to completing US Navy Flight Surgeon School, Bill was designated a flight instructor for the F-14 TOMCAT.

Bill "Doc" Scott is a Senior FAA Medical Examiner who will talk Medical Requirements from a Pilot's perspective. Learn about the now required Med XPress procedures, Learn about the new Pilot's Bill of Rights, and discuss self-certification plus other important issues, and how they can affect you, up close and personal, with an expert during a social and fun, casual dining experience at the Van Nuys Airport, 94th Aero Squadron.

There is a fee for this event designed to cover your dinner and gratuity at the 94th, two door prize tickets, and a small contribution to the non profit VNY Prop Association, that maintains a aviation scholarship program, and lobbies for GA at KVMY.
